Afronomcislaw.org Academic Forum and the Viscount Bennett Professor of Law Chair at the Schulich School of Law are pleased to invite you to join this Webinar on The Future of International Investment Law in Africa - A Conversation on Two New Books.

The webinar brings two together the authors of two new books on the subject of international investment law in Africa and three expert panelists to interrogate thematic issues that arise from the books; their implication for contemporary practices of international investment law in Africa and beyond; and what insights we may draw on them for the future of the regimes on investment law in Africa.

The two books are: The Investment Treaty Regime and Public Interest Regulation in Africa (OUP, 2022) by Dominic N. Dagbanja; and Africa's International Investment Law Regimes (OUP, 2023) by Won L. Kidane.

Panelists:

Dominic N. Dagbanja - Senior Lecturer, The University of Western Australia School of Law

Won L. Kidane - Professor of Law, Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law

Ibironke Odumosu-Ayanu - Professor of Law, University of Saskatchewan College of Law

Kehinde F. Olaoye - Assistant Professor, Hamad Bin Khalifa University College of Law

Harrison Mbori - Research Fellow, Max Planck Institute Luxembourg for International, European, and Regulatory Procedural Law

Moderator:

Olabisi D. Akinkugbe - Associate Professor and Viscount Bennett Professor of Law, Dalhousie University Schulich School of Law
