Afronomicslaw Academic Forum Inaugural Conference: Critical and Contextual Perspectives on International Economic Law: Amplifying the Voices of African Students and Early-Career Researchers

By:

Ohio Omiunu

January 24, 2022

We are delighted to invite you to the inaugural Afronomicslaw Academic Forum Annual Conference. The Online Conference is scheduled for the 5th of February 2022. This inaugural conference is co-sponsored by the African Sovereign Debt Justice Network (AfSDJN) and the African International Economic Law Network (AfIELN).

The conference's theme is: 'Critical and Contextual Perspectives to International Economic Law: Amplifying the Voices of African Students and Early-career Researchers'.

It will be a full-day conference, from 09:00 to 16:00 (Southern African Standard Time) / 10:00 to 17:00 (East African Time).

To attend, please register via this zoom link.

Download the Final Conference Program here.

We look forward to seeing you online.

View online: Afronomicslaw Academic Forum Inaugural Conference: Critical and Contextual Perspectives on International Economic Law: Amplifying the Voices of African Students and Early-Career Researchers

Provided by Afronomicslaw