Call for Application: Lecturer in Commercial Law (Competition Law) at the University of Manchester

By:

University of Manchester

August 3, 2021

The Law department sits within the School of Social Sciences and is internationally recognised for pursuing high quality research across all areas of Law and delivering excellent teaching to undergraduate and postgraduate students. To further strengthen our research and teaching portfolio, in line with our strategic objectives, the School wishes to appoint a Lecturer in Commercial Law (Competition Law). This post will be available from 1 September 2021.

Applicants must have a relevant PhD or equivalent and demonstrate the ability to produce high quality publications, meet flexible curricular and teaching needs, and demonstrate capability to contribute organisationally to the wider School community.

As an equal opportunities employer we welcome applicants from all sections of the community regardless of age, sex, gender (or gender identity), ethnicity, disability, sexual orientation and transgender status. All appointments are made on merit.

Blended working arrangements may be considered

Please note that we are unable to respond to enquiries, accept CVs or applications from Recruitment Agencies.

Enquiries about the vacancy, shortlisting and interviews:

Name: Professor Yenkong Hodu

Email: Yenkong.NgangjohHodu@manchester.ac.uk

General enquiries:

Email: hrservices@manchester.ac.uk

Technical support: https://jobseekersupport.jobtrain.co.uk/support/home

This vacancy will close for applications at midnight on the closing date
.

Please see here for the Further Particulars document which contains the person specification criteria.

View online: Call for Application: Lecturer in Commercial Law (Competition Law) at the University of Manchester

Provided by Afronomicslaw