Advanced Introduction Workshop on International Investment Law and Dispute Resolution by the African Institute of International Law and the African Arbitration Association

By:

Ndanga Kamau

February 19, 2022

The African Institute of International Law (AIIL) and the African Arbitration Association (AfAA) have partnered to host a three-part online workshop series on international investment law in Africa.

The workshops are targeted at government officials, academics, practitioners, research students, and professionals with an interest in international investment law and dispute resolution. The first workshop will focus on an introduction to international investment law and dispute resolution.

Date: Thursday, 3 March 2022

Workshop Topics and Faculty

History of International Investment Law - Ms. Ndanga Kamau, Founder, Ndanga Kamau Law (Kenya/Netherlands)

Jurisdiction, Consent, and Scope of International Investment Agreements - Prof. Walid Ben Hamida, Professor of Law, University of Paris-Saclay (France)

Substantive Provisions in International Investment Agreements - Dr. Suzy Nikièma, Lead Sustainable Investment, IISD (Burkina Faso)

Procedural Aspects of Investor-State Arbitration and Enforcement of Arbitral Awards - Mr. Solomon Ebere, Of Counsel, Omnia Strategy (Nigeria/France/USA)

Click on the embedded link for information on Fees, Programme and Workshop Materials; Registration and Payment.

If you have any queries, please email events@afaa.ngo.

Full time PhD students can apply for a full scholarship from the organisers.*

View online: Advanced Introduction Workshop on International Investment Law and Dispute Resolution by the African Institute of International Law and the African Arbitration Association

Provided by Afronomicslaw