24th Afronomicslaw Academic Forum Guest Lecture Series: The Coloniality of International Economic Law: What This Implies for Law Students in Africa

By:

Nicola Soekoe

August 2, 2022

Title: The Coloniality of International Economic Law: What This Implies for Law Students in Africa Guest

Date: 6 August 2022

Time: 09:00 Chicago, 11:00 Halifax, 15:00 Lagos, 16:00 Jo'burg, 17:00 Nairobi

Zoom Registration here

Lecturer:

Dunia P. Zongwe, Associate Professor, Alliance School of Law, India; and Adjunct Associate Professor, Walter Sisulu University, South Africa.

Discussant:

Lena Salaymeh, British Academy Global Professor, Oxford School of Global and Area Studies (University of Oxford); Professor (Directrice d'études), Section des Sciences Religieuses, École Pratique des Hautes Études (Paris Sciences et Lettres); and Co-Organizer, Decolonial Comparative Law Project, Max Planck Institute for Comparative & Private Intl. Law (Hamburg).

View online: 24th Afronomicslaw Academic Forum Guest Lecture Series: The Coloniality of International Economic Law: What This Implies for Law Students in Africa

Provided by Afronomicslaw