Call for Applications: South African Research Chair in International Constitutional Law Doctoral Candidates

By:

Dr Regis Simo

March 23, 2023

The South African Research Chair in International Constitutional Law, based at Future Africa, University of Pretoria (UP), invites applications for five (5) full-time Research Doctoral candidates commencing in 2024.

Minimum requirements:

• For the LLD applicants must possess a Master's degree (LLM) in international law or a related field at the commencement of 2024;

• Applicants for the LLD must be 32 years old or younger in 2024

• Preference will be given to equity candidates.

Applications must include a comprehensive CV, certified copies of educational qualifications and a motivation letter. In addition, the application must be accompanied by a mini-proposal of no more than 1000 words describing the main objectives and rationale of the proposed doctoral research.

Please note that there will be a two-stage selection process.

Applications must be directed to lisa.ndyulo@up.ac.za by 30 April 2023.

View online: Call for Applications: South African Research Chair in International Constitutional Law Doctoral Candidates

Provided by Afronomicslaw