Call for Applications: Future Africa Chair in Global Equity in Africa Post-Doctoral Position

By:

Regis Simo

The Future Africa Chair in Global Equity in Africa at the University of Pretoria (UP) invites applications for one (1) Post-Doctoral candidate.

The Future Africa Chair in Global Equity in Africa has as its overall objective pursue multi-perspective strategies for global prosperity and to promote Africa, not only a major beneficiary of equity, but also contributor to global equity. The Chair thus seeks to identify (i) challenges preventing progress on the continent and (ii) innovative pathways for overcoming identified challenges.

The minimum requirements for the position are:

• a PhD degree in Human Sciences (law, economics, politics and philosophy) or a related field at the commencement of 2023;

• Preference will be given to equity candidates.

Applications must include a comprehensive CV, certified copies of educational qualifications and a motivation letter. The motivation should be no more than 2000 words and should, at a minimum, describing the main contribution that the candidate would make to the work of the Chair.

Applications must be directed to lisa.ndyulo@up.ac.za by 30 April 2023 for attention.

View online: Call for Applications: Future Africa Chair in Global Equity in Africa Post-Doctoral Position

Provided by Afronomicslaw