Afronomicslaw and The South Centre Collaborative Webinar: Africa and the Geopolitics of WTO Reforms

By:

Olabisi D. Akinkugbe

December 6, 2023

Academic Forum Guest Lecture: Africa and the Geopolitics of WTO Reforms

Date: Saturday December 9, 2023

Zoom Registration here

Time: 5pm Nairobi, 3pm Geneva, 9am New York, 10:00 am Halifax

Afronomicslaw and The South Centre are delighted to collaborate on this webinar where our Panelists will reflect on some of the most topical issues under the broad umbrella of geopolitics of reforms, Africa and the WTO. Please join us as we reflect on the MC13, reform of the WTO DSM and implications for Africa, Africa in an era of renewed industrial policy, sustainable trade in Africa among others.

Guest Speakers:

Ms. Vahini Naidu - Program Coordinator, Trade for Development, South Centre

Luwam Dirar - Assistant Professor of Law, Western New England University School of Law

Olabisi D. Akinkugbe - Associate Professor & Viscount Bennett Professor of Law, Schulich School of Law, Dalhousie University

Moderator:

Ms. Janet Macharia - Afronomicslaw Academic Forum Representative, Eastern Africa

This webinar has been convened in the context of our Academic Forum Guest Lecture Series.

View online: Afronomicslaw and The South Centre Collaborative Webinar: Africa and the Geopolitics of WTO Reforms

Provided by Afronomicslaw