Call for Papers: SIEL 2025 Taipei Global Conference - Navigating New Horizons: International Economic Law in a Changing World

By:

Olabisi D. Akinkugbe

May 31, 2024

Navigating New Horizons: International Economic Law in a Changing World Taipei (Taiwan), 9-11 July 2025

The Ninth Biennial Global Conference of the Society of International Economic Law (SIEL) will take place on 9-11 July 2025 in Taipei (Taiwan), in collaboration with National Taiwan University (NTU). SIEL's Ninth Biennial Global Conference will be in person and address the pressures of escalating geopolitical tensions, environmental challenges, unbridled economic nationalism, profound digital transformations, and growing inequalities are reshaping not just economies, but societies globally.

Proposals for panels/papers/posters must be submitted by 28 June 2024 (midnight GMT) via the dedicated web-form, available here.

The CfP is available below and available for download here.

View online: Call for Papers: SIEL 2025 Taipei Global Conference - Navigating New Horizons: International Economic Law in a Changing World

Provided by Afronomicslaw