Submissions are invited for the GenCGov Conference 2026 — a leading forum bringing together scholars, policymakers, civil society and community leaders to explore the future of climate change governance in a rapidly changing world.

This year's conference, themed Governing Climate Change in an Age of Retreat, Risk, and Geo-political Re-alignment, offers a unique opportunity to engage with cutting-edge research, contribute to critical debates, and connect with a diverse, global network of participants from academia, government, and civil society. GenCGov is more than a conference — it is a space where ideas shape policy, collaborations spark innovation, and research meets real-world impact.

Whether you are advancing theoretical insights or sharing applied work, your contribution will be part of conversations that matter.

- Join a high-impact community

- Build meaningful cross-sector partnerships

- Amplify your research and influence policy discussions

Submit your paper to abstract@gencgovconference.org and be part of shaping the future of governance.

Submission Deadline: 15 April, 2026
