Derby Law School presents a One-day Workshop themed "Generating a future for Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in a post COVID-19 Pandemic World"

By:

Eghosa Ekhator

August 18, 2021

This one-day workshop will investigate, discuss, and consider new sustainable avenues to achieve SDGs in the wake of the Covid-19 pandemic. Some of the possible side effects of the pandemic will be felt on the actualisation of the sustainable development goals (SDGs) especially in developing countries especially as the UK government has announced cuts to foreign aid.

Date: 9th September 2021

Venue: One Friar Gate Square, Derby Law School, University of Derby. For virtual participation, Blackboard collaborate joining link:

https://ca.bbcollab.com/guest/8b9e259bf9f54887a48c0ddef1c7b458

Time: 1-5pm.

Key Speaker: Prof Obiora Okafor, Edward B Burling Chair in International Law John Hopkins University US, Accountability, and the SDGs.

Other speakers include, Prof Ribchester, Dr Adaeze Okoye, Dr Gowri Nanayakkara, Dr Dawn Sedman and Ms Emo Pearce.

Registration: https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/generating-a-future-for-sustainable-development-goals-in-a-post-covid-world-tickets-167658429877.

For more details, please contact Dr Eghosa Ekhator (e.ekhator@derby.ac.uk) or Dr Chisa Onyejekwe (chisa.onyejekwe@canterbury.ac.uk).

This workshop is funded by Society of Legal Scholars.

View online: Derby Law School presents a One-day Workshop themed "Generating a future for Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in a post COVID-19 Pandemic World"

Provided by Afronomicslaw