The Mandela Institute presents a Book Launch Webinar for the book: "International Economic Law (Southern) African Perspectives and Priorities" Edited by Kholofelo Kugler and Franziska Sucker

By:

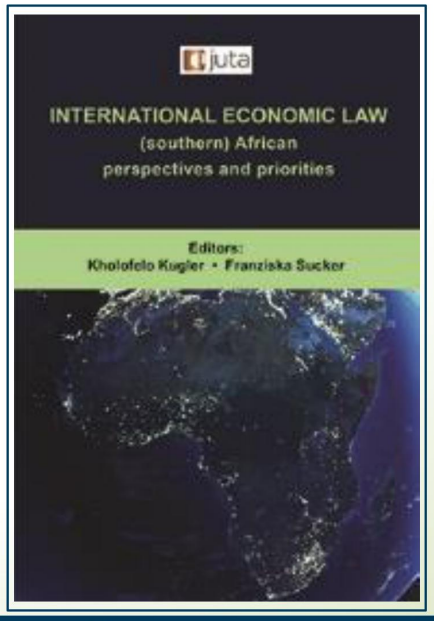

Kholofelo Kugler
Franziska Sucker

September 4, 2021

The Mandela Institute, a centre situated within the Wits School of Law, invite you to a series of three book launch webinars which will discuss chapters of the book International Economic Law - (Southern) African Perspectives and Priorities. This book marks itself as the first book dedicated to examining international economic law from a (southern) African perspectives. It can be purchased here.

The series of Webinar will be held on September 9, September 16. and September 21, 2021 by 14.30.

To register click here.

Book Launch Webinars

9 , 16 and 21 September 2021
14:30

INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC LAW

(southern) African perspectives and priorities

The Mandela Institute, a centre situated within the Wits School of Law, invite you to a series of three book launch webinars which will discuss chapters of the book INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC LAW - (southern) African perspectives and priorities. The first book dedicated to examining international economic law from a (southern) African perspective.

Webinar 1

9 September 2021 at 14:30

Introduction, Perspectives and Priorities

Moderators
Kholofelo Kugler
Ph.D. Candidate, University of Lucerne
Franziska Sucker
Associate Professor, Wits School of Law

Guests Speakers
The Hon. Mr Justice David Unterhalter
Acting Justice of the Supreme Court of Appeal
Leora Blumberg
Member of the Antidumping Reviewing Panel, Australia
Asmita Parshotam
Policy Expert and Independent Consultant
Regis Simo
Senior Researcher, Mandela Institute

Webinar 2

16 September 2021 at 14:30

General and Special Issues

Moderator
Mxolisi Ngulube
Ph.D. Candidate, Wits School of Law

Guests Speakers
Kholofelo Kugler
Ph.D. Candidate, University of Lucerne
Brendan Vickers
Adviser and Head, International Trade Policy, Commonwealth Secretariat, London, United Kingdom
Franziska Sucker
Associate Professor, Wits School of Law
Olabisi Akinkugbe
Assistant Professor, Dalhousie University, Canada
Jonathan Klaaren
Professor, Wits School of Law

Webinar 3

21 September 2021 at 14:30

Trade Remedies

Moderator
Alexander Beyleveld
Senior Researcher, Mandela Institute

Guests Speakers
Meluleki Nzimande
Chief Commissioner, ITAC
Gustav Brink
Extraordinary Professor, University of Pretoria
Kholofelo Kugler
Ph.D. Candidate, University of Lucerne
Maryanne Kamau
Associate, Sidley Austin, Brussels, Belgium

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER >

Enquiries: Magda Janse van Noordwyk | magda.jansevannoordwyk@wits.ac.za

UNIVERSITY OF THE WITWATERSRAND, JOHANNESBURG

MANDELA INSTITUTE

WITS SCHOOL OF LAW

View online: The Mandela Institute presents a Book Launch Webinar for the book: "International Economic Law (Southern) African Perspectives and Priorities" Edited by Kholofelo Kugler and Franziska Sucker

Provided by Afronomicslaw