Following the establishment of the Afronomicslaw Academic Forum in Eastern and Southern Africa, we are delighted to announce the launch of the Academic Forum in West Africa. The Forum welcomes twenty-seven pioneer Representatives from Nigeria, Ghana, Sierra Leone, Togo and Morocco.

The Forum will be led by the trio of:

Gertrude Amarh, Lecturer, University of Professional Studies, Accra (UPSA),

Kayode Olude, an LLM Candidate, University of Nottingham, and Victor Ojeah, an early career researcher and associate at Allen & Overy, London.

We welcome all our Academic Forum (West Africa) Pioneer Representatives.
