Registration (Virtual/In-Person) and Program Announced: China and Europe in the African Continent Conference - (30th November and 1st December 2023)

By:

Afronomicslaw

November 15, 2023

The DIRPOLIS Institute (Law, Politics, Development), with the coordination of researcher Lorenzo Gasbarri and thanks to the support of the Confucio Institute of Pisa, is organizing, as part of the Africa Connect project, the conference "China and Europe in the African Continent", scheduled for November 30 and December 1, 2023, at the Sant'Anna School's main campus.

The event serves as an opportunity to explore new challenges to the relationship between Africa, China and Europe and to develop a constructive and informed discussion on the different strategies pursued by Europe and China in Africa on key issues such as sustainable development, health and security.

Registration form.

Live streaming.

Conference Poster & Program.

Call for Paper (Closed).

View online: Registration (Virtual/In-Person) and Program Announced: China and Europe in the African Continent Conference - (30th November and 1st December 2023)

Provided by Afronomicslaw