Webinar: Building Peace and Human Rights Compliance: Role of Corporate Actor

By:

Afronomicslaw

INTERNATIONAL LAW ASSOCIATION

COMMITTEE ON BUSINESS AND HUMAN RIGHTS

PRESENTS

Webinar: Building Peace and Human Rights Compliance: Role of Corporate Actors

Join the ILA Nigerian Branch Committee on Business and Human Rights for an insightful webinar on Building Peace and Human Rights Compliance: Role of Corporate Actors.

This timely discussion explores the crucial intersection of business practices and human rights and their impact on building peaceful societies.

Date: Friday, April 26th, 2024

Time10:00 AM (WAT); 11:00 AM (CET); 6:00PM (JST)

Register here: http://bit.ly/ilabhr01

Speakers & Leaders:

- Prof. Mariko Shoji:

  Professor of International Relations, International Law and Politics at Keiai University, Japan, delivering the keynote address.

- Dr. Siniša Milatovic:

  Business and Human Rights Specialist, UNDP

- Ruth Shah-Wigley:

  ARS IURA Consultancy Services Limited

- Mercy Obonyo:

  Programmes Officer, NANHRI

- Dr. Oyeniyi Abe: (Moderator)

  Chair, Committee on Business and Human Rights, ILA Nigeria.

Who Should Attend:

Business leaders and executives,

Human rights advocates,

Academics and researchers,

Civil society organizations,

Government representatives,

legal professionals,

Anyone interested in responsible business practices and their contribution to a more peaceful and just world.

View online: Webinar: Building Peace and Human Rights Compliance: Role of Corporate Actor

Provided by Afronomicslaw