27 June 2024

We are thrilled to announce the second edition of the Afronomicslaw Academic Forum Conference, following the tremendous success of our inaugural event. This year, our conference will spotlight the theme:

"The AfCFTA and Regional Development: Historicizing Integration and Charting a Path Forward".

Our fantastic academic representatives from East, Southern, and West Africa have been diligently exploring and contributing to the conference theme over the past year and a excited to share their ideas with you. Their research and insights will provide invaluable perspectives on the AfCFTA. Join us as we critically explore the historical context of regional integration in Africa and outline future strategies to leverage the AfCFTA for sustainable growth and development in Africa.

Event Details:

- Date: 13th of July, 2024
- Time: 11:00 AM - 13:00 PM (Johannesburg Time)
- Format: Virtual (Zoom)
- Registration: http://bit.ly/3xBTARx

We are excited that this conference is on the eve of the African International Economic Law Network (AfIELN) bridge conference, which is scheduled for Dar Salam, Tanzania. This conference promises to bring together thought leaders, policymakers, and scholars dedicated to building the capacity of International Economic Law (IEL) students and early career researchers in Africa.
