Call for Abstracts: Transnational Sports Law from the Periphery: A Global South Perspective (Virtual Conference)

By:

Olabisi D. Akinkugbe

January 20, 2025

The GNLU Centre for Sports and Entertainment Law is please to host the 1st International Conference on Sports Law in the Global South in collaboration with the renowned T.M.C. Asser Instituut International Sports Law Centre, Netherlands.

Dates: 24–25 April 2025 (Online)

Theme: Transnational Sports Law from the Periphery: A Global South Perspective

For the first time in India, this landmark event will explore the unique legal challenges and opportunities faced by the Global South in the dynamic world of sports law.

Download the complete Call for Abstracts here.

Key Sub-Themes:

⚖ Athlete Rights: Advocacy & Implementation

⚖ E-Sports Regulation: Challenges & Opportunities

⚖ Anti-Doping & Integrity

⚖ Sports Data Privacy

⚖ Tackling Corruption in Sports Governance

Selected participants will also get an opportunity to publish in a collaborative volume by GCSEL and the International Sports Law Centre, Netherlands.

Please submit an abstract of 300 words along with your CV no later than February 15, 2025 to gcsl@gnlu.ac.in & tsingh@gnlu.ac.in. Selected speakers will be informed by February 28, 2025.

The selected participants will be required to submit a short draft (3000 words) of their paper by April 15, 2025.

Papers accepted and presented at the conference will be eligible for publication in an edited volume on sports law by GCSEL and the Asser International Sports Law Centre, subject to peer review.

View online: Call for Abstracts: Transnational Sports Law from the Periphery: A Global South Perspective (Virtual Conference)

Provided by Afronomicslaw