Call for Registration: 15th African Society of International Law Annual Conference - “Africa and the Challenge of Reparation in International Law” (Rwanda)

By:

Tafadzwa Pasipanodya

July 21, 2026

The African Society of International Law (AfSIL) invites registration for its 15th annual conference on the “Africa and the Challenge of Reparation in International Law.” The conference will interrogate foundational concepts and practical modalities of reparation in international law, assess convergences and divergences across regimes and institutions, and examine Africa’s proposals, contributions and claims. AfSIL welcomes proposals that offer theoretical innovation, empirical analysis, comparative insight, or practice-based evaluation, with clear implications for counsel, adjudicators, negotiators and policymakers.

This year’s Conference is to be held on 6–7 November 2026 at the Mövenpick Hotel in Kigali, Rwanda, with a series of pre-conference events on 5 November.

See the Provisional Program here.

View online: Call for Registration: 15th African Society of International Law Annual Conference - “Africa and the Challenge of Reparation in International Law” (Rwanda)

Provided by Afronomicslaw