

AFRICAN INTERNATIONAL
ECONOMIC LAW
NETWORK (AfIELN)

Introducing our new

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

2025 – 2027

Dr. Regis Simo

President

Regis is an Associate Professor of International Trade Law at the University of Cape Town. His research focuses on international economic law, development, and AU law. He holds multiple law degrees, including a PhD from Bocconi University, and serves on several editorial boards and as a contributor to AfronomicsLaw.

Ms. Gertrude
Amorkor Amarah

Vice President

Gertrude is a legal practitioner and lecturer at UPSA Law School, Ghana, since 2018. She holds an LLM from LSE and specializes in corporate law and financial regulation. She combines academic work with legal practice and consultancy, maintaining an active presence at the Ghana Bar as a corporate litigation counsel.

Dr. Harrison Mbori

Vice President

Harrison is an expert in international, public, and private law, with a focus on Africa. His research spans international economic law, trade, investment, development, and ADR. He holds an SJD from Loyola University Chicago and is a post-doctoral research fellow at the Luxembourg Centre for European Law.

Introducing our new EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

2025 – 2027

Dr. Rimdolmsom Jonathan Kabré Conference Chair

Jonathan is an Assistant Professor of Law at the Institut Universitaire d'Abidjan, specializing in international, economic, business, and public law. He holds a PhD from the University of Lausanne and has held research and leadership roles at the University of Pretoria and other international institutions.

Ms. Janet Macharia Secretary

Janet is CEO of the Trade Negotiations and Investment Forum and teaches at Strathmore Law School. She holds a Master's in International Economic Law, and specializes in trade policy, investment, and regional integration, and has contributed to national strategies and AfCFTA-related research.

AFRICAN INTERNATIONAL
ECONOMIC LAW
NETWORK (AfIELN)