

The role of African lawyers in the successful implementation of the African Continental Free Trade Agreement (AfCFTA)

8 November - 13 December 2021

A virtual training programme series presented by the IBA African Regional Forum

This six-part series of webinars will seek to provide insight into the various aspects of the African Continental Free Trade Agreement (AfCFTA) development, next steps required to make the Agreement fully operational, the various component parts that remain to be negotiated and the role lawyers will play in the process.

Note:

1. Registration is free for both IBA members and non-members.
2. You are required to sign up to the IBA platform before you can register.
3. Registration is required separately for each session of this training series, based on your area(s) of interest.
